

Incorporated in 2006, WPC is a charitable organization aiming to create a culture of belonging for Windsor-Essex’s 2SLGBTQIA people and their families, allies, employers and educators through education, empowerment and support programs and services.

WPC delivers corporate training, curates events, runs workshops, produces research, hosts community and social and peer support groups, shares information to - and makes referrals for – clients and service providers, and nourishes our community’s mental health and wellness.
